

Headstart Fund of Funds Nominated Again by HFM

LONDON, March 20, 2012 /PRNewswire/ --

Headstart's flagship Fund of Funds, advised by Headstart Advisers and its Chief Investment Officer Najy Nasser, has been nominated in the HFM European Performance Awards for the second year in succession as it continues to build on its successful 12 year track record.

The nomination in the long-term performance award (3 years) category comes after an impressive 3 years for the fund where it generated an annualised return of 12.38% with a low volatility of 7.61%. In the first two months of 2012 the fund has generated a further return of 4.65%.

Headstart Advisers' CIO, Najy N. Nasser, commented: "We are entering what we believe will be an exciting period for Headstart. The current portfolio in the Fund of Funds is exposed to a high percentage of closed hedge funds that have performed impressively over what has been a challenging period for market participants.

"The portfolio is ideally placed to continue to take advantage of a number of opportunities which we can see playing out following the recent unprecedented period in the world's financial markets.

"We are also pleased to announce that after more than twenty one years in Chelsea we have recently relocated to our new offices in the heart of Knightsbridge."

Another fund advised by Headstart Advisers, the Limestone Wider Russia Fund SP is up 29% for the first two months of 2012.
